

SPEAKERS

MARK SCHRÖDER

Some years ago Mark received a prophecy that his life would soon change. “Mark you are going to go through a big change” and shortly after that his life changed dramatically. He moved from a comfortable small church of about 60 members to a much larger church in Leipzig. This event came also with more responsibility. It is said leading a “big” church is expected to bring the satisfaction of success. However, this caused Mark to doubt himself. He had to reassess himself to find out what success really is. Success can only be properly defined when you know your purpose. Mark will be speaking on discovering your purpose during periods of great change. He will also highlight the attitude required to take your call seriously and understand what success is about.
